

delivers green energy

CAREN helps develop a vibrant solar industry in Turkmenistan by supporting remote training of local engineers and real-time transmission of research data to optimise solar cell performance

CAREN provides a dedicated high-capacity Internet, connecting 500,000 scientists, academics and students at over 300 institutions across Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan and Turkmenistan in partnership with the national research and education networks (NRENs)